4. Called Mr. George Moore, Chief Counsel, House Civil Service Committee, to tell him about [REDACTED] case. Mr. Moore requested a copy of our Personal History Statement form, due to reports that it contained questions regarding religious affiliation. He was informed that our present PHS's did not contain any such question. Also that our earlier form -- which had not been developed by us but which was an old OSS form -- had contained such a question, due to the fact that the form was used during wartime, and it was necessary to have the information in case of the death of the person. Mr. Moore requested a copy of the present form and the date on which we commenced using it. A PHS form was delivered by [REDACTED]
